We'll have a short walking tour of this glamorous seaside city seeing highlights like the royal palace, national cathedral (where Princess Grace's tomb is), the port of Monaco lined with its amazing collection of yachts, and ending at the famous Casino de Monte Carlo (you'll have the opportunity to try and strike it rich at the casino!). At night we meet in the hostel lobby for our "Welcome to the French Riviera" champagne party before heading out to the lively old town of Nice. The old town features a ton of live music bars, clubs, and the beautiful beachfront view along the palm tree lined Promenade des Anglais.

Saturday - Day 3

Morning departure (approx. 10am) for included trip to Cannes and Antibes to hit the beach, check out the popular French markets, museums, or spend the day in cities filled with world class shopping and seaside cafes! We first stop in the town of Antibes which is famous for its Picasso museum, charming old town and market, and also being home to some of the world's largest privately owned yachts in its port (yes, billionaires keep their yachts here)! Following our stop in Antibes we then continue on to the beautiful, and ritzy, town of Cannes which is famous for its annual film festival, great shopping and food, and also it's long golden, sandy beach along the famous Croisette pedestrian promenade. Saturday night in Nice is free to enjoy the city again for a great French dinner and some more nightlife or a relaxing night in.

With a late departure you'll also have time to explore other nearby seaside towns you may have missed on Friday or Saturday. Departure from Nice on Sunday will be at approx. 2.00 pm and we will drive along the famous Grande Corniche and make a stop in the ancient hill top village of Eze and its famous Fragonard perfume factory before returning home (*Eze trip on Sunday is for Italy departures only)
