Offered Activities

- Cliffs of Moher - included - day tour takes you to the magnificent wild Atlantic. You have the opportunity to walk along this iconic landmark with sweeping views along the coast out to the Aran Islands. Highlights of trip: Limerick, The Burren, The Cliffs Of Moher, Corcomroe Abbey, Galway Bay, Kinvara Harbour Village.
- Guinness museum & factory - included - will take you on a magical journey deep into the heart of the world famous Guinness. Housed in an old Fermentation Plant at St James's Gate, the now seven-storey visitor experience tells the story of Ireland's iconic drink & brings to life the heritage of Guinness from early days to growth as a global brand, known around the world. The experience starts standing at the bottom of the world's largest pint glass, which rises through the building. It is a dramatic story that begins over 250 years ago and ends in Gravity Bar where you can relax and enjoy spectacular views over Dublin.
- Pubcrawl - 12 Euro - in a city world famous for its pub scene, Dublin's nightlife should not be missed. From traditional pubs to modern bars and late night clubs.

Packing tips

- Passport
- Good walking shoes
- One set of nicer clothes if interested in going out to a club at night

Day to Day Itinerary

Thursday - Day 1

Arrival on your own to hostel in Dublin (you will be sent specific directions several days before the trip) with check in after 3pm. Euroadventures leader will be available from Thursday evening at reception. A night out to several pubs in the Temple Bar area will be offered.

During the March 14th-17th St. Patrick's weekend, the festival and parade will take place starting from Sunday morning. Because of the festivities there will be no walking tour and Guinness factory visit (especially when you can enjoy Guinness out with all the revelers for the festival with events happening in the streets of Dublin every day during this special weekend!).*

Friday - Day 2

Breakfast provided. At approx. 10am, we have a morning walking tour of historic Dublin with stops at Dublin Castle, Temple Bar, Trinity College, Dubh Linn, Leinster House and more! The guide will show you all Dublin has to offer with a unique and local twist! At the end of the tour, we'll head to the Guinness factory (and a free pint!) and at night an optional pub crawl after.

During St. Patrick's weekend, there is no walking tour or Guinness factory visit included so this is a free day to explore and enjoy the festivities all around Dublin and wander the city yourself.*

Saturday - Day 3

Breakfast provided and 6:30am departure on the day trip to tour the famous Cliffs of Moher, The Burren, Limerick City. Return to Dublin at approx. 7:30pm and free night on your own to rest, relax or hit the city's nightspots again.

Sunday - Day 4

Breakfast and check out (check out time by 11am) and departure on your own. You are free to leave your bags at the hostel and continue exploring Dublin if your departure is later in the day.

During the March 14th-17th St. Patrick's weekend, the festival and parade will take place starting from 10am Sunday morning. Have your breakfast and head early to the parade route to get great spots for viewing, and following the parade head to the Temple Bar area where you can enjoy the non-stop party in the streets and pubs!*

This is a Fly-in package and arrival & departure on your own from Dublin*
