

PERUGIA CHOCOLATE FESTIVAL

The annual Eurochocolate in Perugia is Europe's largest chocolate festival and a must for all chocoholics! There are numerous exhibits, demonstrations, contests, and even free samples of yes, everything chocolate.

Country: Italy
Located A hill town located in Italy's Umbria region south of the regions of Tuscany and north of Lazio
Typical Cuisine CHOCOLATE CHOCOLATE CHOCOLATE :)

DEPARTURE TIMES

Florence 7:30 - 8:00am
 Rome 7:30am

Florence approx. 5:30-6:00pm
 Rome approx. 5:30

Arrival times depend on traffic

DEPARTURE CITIES

Florence
 Rome

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- round trip transportation
- Chococard
- Euroadventures trip leader

WHAT'S NOT INCLUDED

- lunch & snacks
- souvenirs

ITINERARY

Trip meets at 7:30 - 8:00am (you will receive an email with exact meeting spot the week of the departure). for our transfer to Perugia. The travel time is approx. 2.5-3 hours and we normally arrive at approx. 10:30am.

We will arrive just outside Perugia's beautiful old town and walk into the center to where the chocolate festival is being held throughout the streets. From there you will be given your "ChocoCard" good for chocolate discounts and freebies! From there you are on your own to explore the festival and the city of Perugia for the day, and most importantly GO CHOCOLATE CRAZY!!

Departure time will be at approx. 5:30-6pm (exact time announced during our morning departure) from our original arrival point in Perugia. We will arrive back at approx. 8-8:30pm.

